

THE NATIONAL
Coalition on Black
Civic Participation

Presents its
5th Annual Voices of the Electorate
Democracy Symposium

2006. Hurricane Season Are We Ready?

And Release of New Orleans Rebuilding
Exit Poll Results

Wednesday, June 7, 2006

1:00p.m. – 4:00p.m.

The National Press Club

529 14th Street, NW
Washington, D.C.

Moderator:

Dr. Yvonne Scruggs-Leftwich, Professor
National Labor College - George Meany Campus

Panelists include:

The Honorable Michael Chertoff, Secretary, U.S. Department of Homeland Security*

Congressman Bennie G. Thompson, U.S. House of Representatives*

D. Eric Pogue, Senior Vice President, Human Resources & Diversity, American Red Cross

Dr. Bettye Davis-Lewis, President, National Black Nurses Association, Inc.

Major George E. Hood, National Community Relations & Development Secretary, The Salvation Army

Janet Johnson, Vice President, Long-Form Program Production & Scheduling, The Weather Channel

Steven Jones, Executive Director, First Response Coalition

Lynn H. Pharr, Director of Crisis Preparedness, Response & Recovery, United Way of America

Dr. Silas Lee, President, Silas Lee & Associates

Respondents include:

Jena Roscoe, Senior Vice President, Government Relations, Operation HOPE/HOPE Coalition America

LaTosha Brown, Regional Director, Alabama Coalition on Black Civic Participation

Gary Flowers, Vice President for Public Policy, Rainbow PUSH Coalition

Stephanie Jones, Executive Director, National Urban League Policy Institute

Dr. Joe Leonard, Executive Director, Black Leadership Forum

Hilary Shelton, Executive Director, NAACP Washington Bureau

Vincent Sylvain, Regional Director, Louisiana Unity Coalition

*Invited

Limited Seating Available

RSVP to nharvin@ncbcp.org or (202) 659-4929

For more information on the NCBCP visit www.ncbcp.org

